

NJCDEA

The New Jersey Conservation District Employees Association (NJCDEA) is a voluntary, non-profit association of personnel employed by New Jersey's 15 Soil Conservation Districts. The Association was established in 1983 to represent the Conservation District employee's interests at the state and national level. We are closely affiliated with the NJ Association of Conservation Districts and the National Association of Conservation Districts.

NJCDEA is dependent on the support, commitment and dedication of our members. Membership is open to any NJ conservation district employee and those who support the purpose and mission of the Association. Members are encouraged to attend meetings and participate in NJCDEA activities. Only members can vote on Association business and be elected to the Board of Directors.

NJCDEA is managed by a four-member board of directors elected by Association members. NJCDEA's activities are supported by membership dues.

NJCDEA has sponsored the following trainings:

- ◆ Inter-Agency Cross Training
 - ◆ Hydrology, Soil Fundamentals
 - ◆ Plant ID, Defensive Driving
 - ◆ Joint District/NRCS Training
